Dear Parents,

In light of the government's announcement this evening, school will be closed tomorrow.

I can only apologise for the confusion and late notice and understand that this will be very inconvenient for all of you.

I will be in touch with you all early tomorrow to organise who will need access to the keyworker and vulnerable group and what the arrangements for remote learning will be.

As you can understand, schools have also been left with little notice to make the necessary arrangements and because of this, even if you are a keyworker, where possible please keep your child / children at home tomorrow. If you have any immediate problems please contact me at head.stmartins@halton.gov.uk to discuss.

Yours Faithfully,

Mrs Ming
Headteacher
